The "Yellow Chassis" Trucks That Serve So Well

Count Them

Just count the Yellow Chassis Trucks you see in El Paso and throughout the Southwest.

That they are in the majority is because they serve so well.

When you see a Yellow Chassis Truck you can just say to yourself "There goes the best truck built." If you are interested in Trucks-and every progressive business concern is who has a hauling problem—just look up the owner of any Republic Truck. If you will do this then you will look us up.

We have complete stocks to supply new and repeat orders.

An Interesting Advertisement

In next week's Saturday Evening Post-Jan. 18-you will see an advertisement of the Yellow Chassis Truck. We have already seen this Ad and we want you to see it without fail.

If you are interested in Trucks you naturally want to be interested in the best Truck on the market. Our dealers throughout the territory will be glad to give you full information. If you can't find a dealer take the matter up with us direct.

Tommy Carter Would Meet Columbus Boxers

Meel Columbus Boxers Celumbus, N. M., Jan. 11—Just before the principal boat of the siternoon here between Toungs Dundes, of Camp Travis, and Nick Gundy, of Fort Siles, a telegram was read announcing a challenge from Tommy Carter, fast lightweight of Fort Blies. Carter issued in sweeping challenge to local lightweights offering to take on any boxer up to 185 pounds Carter weighs 115. Carter's recent victory over Bertis Coxhill, of Fort Blies, has brought him before the fans in a very favorable light and it is mot improbable that he may be matched to appear here soon.
